1. CIPP progress check—everyone is continuing with their grade level groups. The high school social studies teachers and librarians are beginning to work together on CBAs.

2. United Streaming playlist follow up—Kathy Anderson has created a playlist for Native Americans, and Linda has one for U.S. Constitution. They will be sent to Ron for approval and inclusion on the district shared site.

3. March workshop discussion

The workshop was scheduled for March 6, but has to be rescheduled for March 21, at Sunnyslope, 8:30. Possible topics:

- Website creation
- Camera picture download
- Library World file cleanup
- review directions for Parsons pics to LW pics
- automatic library computer backup at night

Hopefully we will be able to differentate so we can address the needs of people with different technology skills.

4. Check out restrictions—Kathy Dorey led a discussion about how other librarians handle limiting book check out.

5. Reading promotion discussion

-Linda shared a "book badge" idea, as well as "be kind to the bottom shelves" check out day

-For Read Across America Dawn is featurin Jack Prelutsky, poet laureate

-The high school is developing a freshman intervention plan which includes reading training for freshman teachers

-Rock 'n Read on Mondays at Foothills

8. Eisenberg workshop Feb. 1

Sixty-two educators plus public librarians will be at the workshop. Details will be coming from Nancy.

9. We discussed continuing with long range planning for district libraries and the consensus is that it is a valuable thing to do and should be pursued. Because of time and budget constraints, we decided to create a sub-committee to draft a proposed plan to bring to the group. Linda will ask Jodi for funding so the committee can meet. One possibility would be the March 7  $\frac{1}{2}$  day for spring conferences which would require half day subs, but the committee could work for the whole day. Volunteers for the committee are:

Dan (Mon. or Tues.)
Linda Riesterer
Jeanne or Claudia
Tricia or Teri
Nancy

10. Nancy reported on authors for WLMA next fall--T.A. Barron, Susan Fletcher, Patrick Carman. Nancy needs volunteers to host the authors at conference.

Judy Schachner—Skippy John Jones author for elementary folks.
